

Eligibility Quiz

This quiz is intended to help clarify if the Next Leaders Fellowship might be a good fit as you consider applying.

---

 Do you currently work in a Higher-education Information and Technology role? This is inclusive of roles in central or distributed IT organizations, as well as functional technologists who serve in offices across their institution such as academic technology, admissions, development, financial aid, human resources, and libraries.

- Yes
- No

 Do you identify as being from a racial or ethnic group historically underrepresented in Higher Education IT senior leadership roles? These groups are based on the categories outlined by the US Census Bureau or Statistics Canada as well as First Nations, Métis, and Inuit people classifications. For more information please see <https://www.cupahr.org/surveys/research-briefs/2019-diversity-in-higher-ed-it/>, <https://www.census.gov/topics/population/race/about.html>, and <https://nces.nsf.gov/pubs/nsf21321>.

- Yes
- No

 Are you interested in pursuing the senior-most role in an information and technology organization such as Chief Academic Technology Officer (CATO), Chief Information Officer (CIO), Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), or Chief Technology Officer (CTO)?

- Yes
- No

 If you were selected, would you be able to meet the expectations to engage in the experience that starts in March 2022? Dedicate approximately four to six hours each week for the duration of the fellowship; Attend and fully engage in fellowship programming and events; This includes two fully sponsored in-person experiences: Kickoff retreat aligned with the 2022 NERCOMP Annual Conference, March 14-16, 2022 in Providence, RI. Mid-program retreat aligned with the 2022 EDUCAUSE Annual Conference, October 25 - 28, 2022 in Denver, CO.

- Yes
- No