

Next Leaders Fellowship Application"

The Next Leaders Fellowship is recruiting participants into a sponsored one-year cohort experience where they will be mentored by accomplished senior leaders committed to supporting their professional growth. This effort is not seeking to replace existing leadership development programs, but instead will sponsor participation in and complement them by explicitly recruiting a cohort of diverse candidates, creating a community among and around them, and providing mentorship and coaching throughout the program year. For those looking to be part of this cohort, this application is an opportunity to share your story. The questions and prompts are intended to help us learn more about you. Your responses will be kept confidential and used by the reviewers to help us intentionally build a cohort of fellows who are all looking to advance their careers and increase representation and inclusion in the Higher-Ed information and technology community.

 Commitment to Addressing Issues of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion NLF is pursuing a vision where all information and technology professionals have the opportunities, support, and advocacy to pursue senior leadership roles. Key to this is building a community of emerging leaders with a shared commitment to addressing issues of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI).

 What value do you see in addressing issues of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) in Higher-Ed IT organizations?

---

---

---

 Should you be selected, how do you believe your participation would contribute to this shared commitment to addressing and advancing issues of DEI?

---

---

---

 Leadership Experiences and Perspectives NLF is seeking to identify, develop, and advocate for emerging leaders.

 What is your previous leadership experience? What is your previous experience guiding teams or projects in professional or personal capacities? Please reflect on your leadership experiences across cultural, civic, or religious groups as well.

---

---

---

 How have these experiences shaped the way you think about recruiting and hiring, assembling teams, working to align different knowledge and skills, and building an inclusive environment?

---

---

---

 What professional, academic, and/or personal experiences have you had supporting or advocating for others? Have those experiences shaped your views on leadership?

---

---

---

 Knowledge of and Engagement in the Higher Education IT Community NLF is seeking to build a community that is especially driven to support and enhance the mission of Higher Education institutions.

 What brought you to a career in IT, and why have you chosen to build a career in Higher Education? How would you articulate the value of working in Higher Education?

---

---

---

 How do you envision IT contributing to the mission of Higher-Ed institutions?

---

---

---

 How have you contributed to the Higher-Ed IT community at your institution, in your region, or in the broader industry?

---

---

---

 Potential for Future Growth and Opportunities NLF is especially interested in identifying, developing, and advocating for professionals with an interest in pursuing senior leadership roles in Higher-Ed IT such as Chief Information Officer (CIO), Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), Chief Academic Technology Officer, and Chief Technology Officer (CTO).

 Why are you interested in pursuing a senior leadership role? What experiences have especially shaped this interest?
